

HARDING, BACK IN U. S., ASKS FOR HUGE NAVY

America Should Have Navy
Equal to Her Greatness,
He Says in Speech.

GIVEN ROUSING WELCOME

President-Elect Glad to Return After Month's Tour of the South.

By Raymond Clapper
By United Press Leased Wire

Newport News, Va.—Speaking with in a few miles of one of America's greatest naval bases, President-elect Harding today declared for a "navy
equal to the greatness of this nation."
Harding's speech was delivered in the academy of music here a few hours after he landed from his ship,
the Pastores, on which he came from Panama.

Harding also expressed the hope that the world would soon reach approximate disarmament but added:
"Until that time, I want an American navy equal to the greatness of this nation."

The president-elect warned of difficult times ahead as a result of the world war.

The Pastores, the ship on which Harding came from Panama, arrived in Newport News early today. Soon after Harding and his party left the ship coming ashore at 10:30.

A huge welcome had been prepared for the president-elect. Twenty five airplanes and hydroplanes circled over his ship and over the shore as he landed. Three big naval dirigibles also hovered there above the Harding ship.

Immediately after he landed, Harding was taken on a tour of the big shipyards and naval establishment.

The Harding party will then board
a destroyer and go to Norfolk where the president-elect will attend a businessmen's dinner and probably will make a short address.

Harding will go from Norfolk to Dedford, Va., where he will speak at the Elks memorial service tomorrow.
He plans to reach Washington early Monday and be on hand for the opening of congress Monday noon.

Harding was in high spirits at the end of his trip and showed the benefits of his month's vacation. Both he and Mrs. Harding expressed their joy
at "being home again."

The president-elect is eager to get back to Washington and get matters cleared up so he can return to Marion.

BLAMES WASTE FOR END OF HIGH PRICES

Editor of Financial Paper Says Prosperity Rainbow Is Coming Soon.

By United Press Leased Wire
Cleveland, Ohio.—Economic waste was termed the cloud which is preventing the rainbow in the financial heavens of America, in an address by Theodore H. Price, collector of "Commerce and Finance," New York City, before the City club of Cleveland today.

But as there can be no rainbow
without a cloud, Price said, phenomena is perfectly natural.

Price furthermore predicted an immediate appearance of the rainbow of prosperity.

Chief among the economic waste
Price classified the "waste of capital that results from keeping eight billions of gold tied up in idleness as bank reserves."

"Our federal reserve banks alone
hold two billions of gold as a reserve," he said.

"If it were in circulation it would earn at least $100,000,000 a year in interest, to say nothing of the stimulus to business it would furnish."

Regarding the waste of material,
Price said that the waste of raw material in American industry averages fully thirty per cent.

"And as the labor element," he added, "we have a long way to go before we can even glimpse the addition to our wealth that would result from the intelligent utilization of human labor."

"Of our waste of transportation," he said, "we ought to be ashamed. I know of a certain article that makes four journeys between New England and the middle west in the course of its fabrication. Doubtless there are many others."

GRAND JURY RETURNS TWENTY INDICTMENTS

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—Arrests were impending today of persons named in twenty secret indictments returned by the United States grand jury here late yesterday. The grand jury recessed until next Thursday, when it will resume its session, and other indictments are expected.

It is said the grand jury devoted the greater part of its long session to liquor law violations, but whether the indictments returned were for such or not, could not be learned. Officials would not divulge the nature of the indictments.

Organized Farmers Plan Extension Of Food Management

GRAIN GAMBLING BLAMED FOR DROP IN FARM PRICES

Senator Capper Calls Grain Brokers "World's Greatest Gamblers."

By L. C. Martin
By United Press Leased Wire

Washington, D. C.—Assuring gambling in grain is the chief reason for the slump in prices of farm products, Senator Capper of Kansas, today declared that there is "a grain gamblers conspiracy to bilk the people and farmers out of hundreds of millions of dollars."

With his statement, Capper mad-public the bill he will introduce in the senate Monday to break up grain gambling by imposing a tax of ten per cent on all deals in grain futures,
except when actual delivery is contemplated.

"This bill," said Capper, "will stop
all gambling in wheat, corn, cotton and other products. It will eliminate the wheat pit and blackboard. It will put out of business the thousands of wire houses and bucket shops operating in every city in the United States."

"The Chicago board of trade as now conducted, is the world's greatest gambling institution. More wheat was sold in Chicago in October than was raised in the United States this year."

This year's corn crop was sold four teen times in Chicago before a bushel of corn had reached the markets. Only about one per cent of the trading done in futures represents bonafide
transactions for actual delivery.

"Because a lot of gamblers find it convenient to bet on the daily quotations, the farmer who has been forced to sell his hogs and cattle at a loss while meat still sells at war prices, is again made the goat. The farmer has already lost more than a billion dollars
by the bear raid on the board of trade."

The senate and house agricultural committees continued their joint conference today on measures of relief
for farmers.

Representatives of cotton growers
were to be heard.

A coalition of western and southwestern members of congress to force
enactment of legislation to aid farmers, even over President Wilson's veto, was forecast today at the joint meeting of house and senate agriculture committees.

Senator-elect Hefflin, democrat, of Alabama, and Senator Capper, republican, of Kansas, united in declaring that such a coalition would be formed and that it would have plenty of votes
to beat the administration if a conest arose.

EQUITY REFUSES TO JOIN WITH BUREAU

State Convention Closes After Hot Session—Otto Rohm Is Director.

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—After voting down the proposed amalgamation with the farm bureau or any other farmers' organization last night, the Wisconsin state union of the American Society of Equity closed its fifteenth annual convention.

The convention took a last "shot"
at the Non-Partisan league, when after a fight, the address of M. P. Johnson, of North Dakota, scoring the official equity paper.

The equity yesterday, following selection of a new president and vice-president, elected F. J. Hertsfeld, of Waupaca county, a director for three years and J. A. Hogan, Dane county, O. F. Rohm, Outagamie county, and John E. Prince, Chippewa county, directors for one year.

COLBY SAILS TODAY FOR SOUTH AMERICA

By United Press Leased Wire
Fortress Monroe, Va.—Secretary of State Clegg started today on his long delayed trip to South America. The battleship Florida, carrying Colby and his party, steamed out of Hampton Roads shortly after noon.

The travel steamed United Fruit
liner Pastores carried President-elect Harding coming in, passed the Florida outward bound. There was no formal exchange of salutes.

Colby sent the following message to Harding by radio from the Mayflower:
"I sincerely hope you are returning home much benefited and freshened
by your trip."

Small Pox In Chicago
By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Small pox was reported prevalent in many schools of Chicago today. All children were ordered barred from class rooms who refused to submit to vaccination. About two hundred were out, school authorities reported, because parents refused to permit vaccination.

Protection of Farmer and Consumer From Speculator and Profiteer Is Chief Aim of National Organization, President Charles S. Barrett Says.

(By Ralph F. Couch)
By United Press Leased Wire

Washington.—More than 1,500,000
farmers banded together in the national board of farm organizations
now are preparing for a drive in congress to get legislation to protect the consumer and farmer from being victimized by speculators and profiteers
in food, President Charles S. Barrett, of the board, announced today.

"Seven million farmers are now ordered to sell their products at the lowest price in history in proportion to production costs," said Barrett.

"But one hundred million consumers are paying the highest prices in history for these same products. Billions of dollars of profit thus is going into the pockets of the speculators
and middlemen."

"As the first step in the drive for protective legislation, the farmers," Barrett said, "are organizing a country-wide public relations committee to coordinate the common aims of farmer and consumer."

The committee, to be developed under the direction of the national board of farm organizations, will include representatives of the national consumers' league, and the labor group,
as well as farmers, according to present plans.

The farmers' program for protective legislation begins with amendments to the anti-trust laws to permit farmers, cooperative societies to engage in interstate business. Through many of the cooperative societies,
farmers plan to sell direct to the consumer.

"As the anti-trust laws are now interpreted, the cooperative societies in many cases can be made subject to prosecution," said Barrett.

The cooperative societies are intended to curtail, and in some cases,
do away with altogether all unnece-
sary middlemen and food speculators.
Approximately 3,000,000 farmers now
are members of the societies, which,
according to Barrett, dispose of over $3,000,000,000 worth of goods a year.

Under direction of the national board, attempts are now being made to organize cooperative societies in every section of the United States as part of the protective campaign. In addition to getting food direct to the consumer, the societies enable farmers to buy their seeds, machinery and other supplies wholesale, thereby increasing agricultural efficiency.

"Yet," said Barrett, "increased efficiency for the farmer practically always spells decreased prices for him at the same time. Increased acreage and harvest and prices drop, has been the experience of the farmer. His only recourse therefore, is to market more wisely and eliminate the mid-dlerman and speculator where possible
by assuming the legitimate functions of the middleman and by encouraging
the consumer to do likewise."

"The department of agriculture has discovered through years of careful observation that a majority of the seven million farmers of the country annually are forced to dispose of the bulk of their crops in the fall immediately after harvest."

JUDGE PONDERS OVER PICKFORD DIVORCE CASE

By United Press Leased Wire
Minden, Nevada.—Superior Judge Langan was engrossed today in the arguments of the suit of the state of Nevada against Mary Pickford and Owen Moore, to annul their divorce.

It was indicated that there would be no decision in the case or further proceedings for at least two weeks.

The point which Judge Langan is now studying involves the jurisdiction of the court over the case and the authority of Attorney General W. R.
Fowler to start such an action. Both the court's jurisdiction and Fowler's authority were attacked by attorneys.

TAXI DRIVER SHOT FOR TRYING TO SAVE PAYROLL

By United Press Leased Wire
Minneapolis.—A taxi cab driver was shot by bandits in a $1,000 payroll holdup here early today, according to police reports.

Ryle Mealy was the taxi driver.
One of two bandits shot him when he tried to argue them out of taking the $1,000 payroll of the Northern Bag company.

Two clerks, O. Dahlberg and Paul Pritte, were in the cab. The bandits robbed the bag and fled.
Mealy may die.

EEK WRIT AIMED AT OFFICIALS OF UNION

By United Press Leased Wire
Fond du Lac, Wis.—Attorneys for the Hamilton Beach company of Rapids, are today seeking a writ of habeas corpus for the company's employees, and made application for an injunction restraining union officials from interfering with their employment.

Judge Fowler entered a rule on the defendants returnable at Racine on December 11, to show cause why the injunction should not be granted.

PREMIER AND SINN FEIN IN PEACE PARLEY

Lloyd George Said to Be Negotiating With Irish to End Hostilities.

MANY LEADERS ARRESTED

Cessation of Killing Believed Due to Government's Drastic Action.

By Webb Miller
London.—The Galway county council, composed of Sinn Fein members, passed a resolution requesting the Irish parliament to appoint three delegates to negotiate a truce and honorable peace with England, according to a dispatch received here today.

"This followed reports that Premier Lloyd George had been unofficially negotiating with Sinn Fein, seeking a peace for peace."

London.—Quiet negotiations are in progress between representatives of Premier Lloyd George and of the Sinn Fein, with the object of bringing about peace in Ireland, it was reported today.

Lloyd George was described as "feeling out" the Sinn Fein in an effort to ascertain whether it would be possible to hold conferences with leaders. So far, the report had it,
the prime minister has not actually met any of the rebel leaders and the whole affair is entirely unofficial. If it is found impossible to reach a common ground of discussion, the matter will be quietly dropped, it is expected, and no official announcement or intimation concerning it will be forthcoming.

The quiet situation in Ireland during the last few days may be attributable to the fact the Sinn Fein are awaiting the outcome of the "feeling out" process, or to the fact that most of the belligerent leaders have been rounded up in the government's great drive upon the rebel organization, which was launched shortly after the assassination of sixteen British officers in Dublin. Great internment camps have been constructed in various parts of Ireland and many of the Sinn Fein leaders will spend their Christmas holidays behind the barbed wire netting with barbed wire fixed around the perimeter of the camps.

The first batch of Sinn Fein destined for interment has arrived at Camp Ballykissil, county Down, according to a dispatch received today.

The court martial of Countess Markiewicz, the Sinn Fein woman member of parliament, has been reserved. She is accused of organizing and directing a branch of the Sinn Fein boy scouts.

JEALOUSY LEADS TO ARREST OF TWO GIRLS

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—A longing for pretty clothes and fancy led nineteen year old Josephine Van Dor Elsen to embezzle cash sales from her employer,
and her chum nineteen year old Betty Busmeister, to try to blackmail her, according to information in the hands of police today, after arrest of the two pretty girls.

Betty accidentally ran across crumpled sales slips and cash in Josephine's pocketbook, and then she realized
why "Babe" had such nice clothes than she. She then wrote her letters demanding money or exposure. Josephine, frantic, sent $50 to a "blind"
newspaper ad which led to the arrest of Betty and revelation of the story.
Josephine's arrest followed.

TWO MORE LEAGUE BANKS CLOSE IN NORTH DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D.—Two more banks closed in North Dakota today bringing the total to 20 since early in November.

The banks reported closed today
were the Mohall and Antler.
Examination of the Bank of North Dakota at Bismarck, began yesterday.
Progressed today but it probably will be fifteen days before a report of conditions can be had.

Secretary of State Hall, State Attorney Kosciuszko and Attorney Gen.
Langer, all opponents of the Non-Partisan league, were authorized by an united law Nov. 2 to conduct an investigation of the state bank inauguated by the Non-Partisan league.
They placed a St. Paul firm in charge of the audit of the bank's books.

POLICE HOLD ONE MAN IN REGISTERED MAIL THEFT

By United Press Leased Wire
Minneapolis.—One man was being detained temporarily by police today
in connection with the theft of a large amount of registered mail from a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train
here early Friday.

Police at first denied that anyone
was held but when told who they were holding admitted the fact, requesting that his name be withheld from print until further investigation.

No trace had been found early today of two bandits who robbed two bank messengers of $15,000 in liberty bonds at the doors of the postoffice in St. Paul last night.

NEW YORK SINN FEINERS HONOR WIDOW OF IRISH HUNGER STRIKER

Immense Crowds Greet Mrs.
Murial MacSwiney When She Reaches U. S.

HONORED IN U. S.

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Received in impressive silence by a crowd of Sinn Fein sympathizers, wearing mourning bands on their arms and carrying Sinn Fein flags, Mrs. Murial MacSwiney, widow of the lord mayor of Cork, landed today from the White Star liner Celtic and went in an automobile to the St.
Regis hotel.

Mrs. MacSwiney was accompanied by Mary MacSwiney, her sister-in-law.
She came to this country to testify
before the commission formed by the New York "Nation" a weekly magazine, to investigate the Irish situation.

In anticipation of trouble at the pier, several hundred policemen were on hand. They held the crowd back to the sidewalks. However, some clustered around the automobile as Mrs. MacSwiney entered it. The "silent welcome" continued until just as the automobile procession started.
When there was an outburst of cheering.

A big delegation was on hand to greet the widow. Eamon de Valera was represented by Harry Boland, his secretary. Representatives of all the longshoremen's unions in the city acted as an honor guard as Mrs. Mac Swiney walked from the gangplank to the car. A police escort of motor cycle men accompanied her to the hotel.

Mrs. MacSwiney's progress up Fifth avenue was like a triumphal procession. The crowds were dense all along the way. They frequently broke thru police ranks and ran alongside her automobile cheering wildly. At every halt hundreds sought to get near her.
A double row of motorcycle police rode on each side of her car. Several times policemen were knocked from their motorcycles by the crowd in its earnestness to reach her side.

Passing the Union club where Sinn
Fein are meeting, Mrs. MacSwiney was greeted by a British flag and played, the escort of longshoremen hoisted and cheered at the members who thronged the windows looking out at the parade. The marchers defiantly waved their Sinn Fein flags
at the club while the noise of hissing
and boing ran all down the line.

Mrs. MacSwiney peered out of her auto in an interested manner. There was another great crowd at the hotel
and she was greeted with cheers and applause. Once she left her car to kiss six children dressed in green who stood at the curb. Again, when the throng surged close, she threw roses at them. The people fought for the flowers.

ARGENTINA IS FIRST TO QUIT WORLD LEAGUE

South American Republic, Angered Over Vote, Withdraws From League.

By United Press Leased Wire
Geneva.—Honorable Puerrydon today notified President Hymans, of the league of nations assembly, that the Argentine delegation had withdrawn.

Puerrydon, who is the Argentine foreign minister and head of its delegation here, declared Argentina would resume its place at the assembly
withdrawing its action of Thursday postponing the consideration of all amendments until 1921.

Puerrydon voted against the proposal to postpone all amendments that was overruled by President Hymans.
It was reported before Argentina's action was announced that the whole question would be re-opened Monday anyway.

Puerrydon cast the lone vote against the proposal to refer all amendments to a committee and defer action on them until 1921. Hymans overruled his vote on the ground that a unanimous vote in the assembly was not required on matters of procedure.
Puerrydon disagreed with this.

Charles D. Doherty, Canadian minister of justice, submitted an amendment for suppression of Article X. It will be discussed Monday.

SOVIET REPUBLIC FORMED IN ARMENIA

Moscow Wireless Declares New Government Will Establish Peace.

By United Press Leased Wire
London.—Armenia has been declared a soviet republic, a wireless message from Moscow declared today.

The wireless said, after announcing establishment of a soviet republic, there was no occasion for Wilson to mediate in that country now as thru bolshivism, peace between Armenians
and Turks would be established.

"In one blow," said the wireless,
"the age long enmity between Armenians and Musselmen is finished by the establishment of solidarity between the workers of Turkey and Armenia. Neither Great Britain's insurance nor President Wilson's promises, nor the league of nations could save Armenia from massacre and an annihilation. Soviet rule has brought peace in Armenia. On Wednesday the soviet at Azerbaijan renounced and handed over to Armenia the disputed provinces. The same day the Armenian soviet received greetings
from the Turkish command."

BIG JUMP IN VALUE OF MINNESOTA PROPERTY

By United Press Leased Wire
St. Paul.—An increase of more than $776,000,000 in the total true and full value of taxable real property in Minnesota over two years ago was reported by the state tax commission today.

The value of this class of property was stated as $4,688,123,664, according to the commission. This is by far the greatest gain in values ever recorded in any two year period in the state's history and represents an average increase of 20 per cent over figures for 1918.

Farm property shows a greater increase than city and village property, according to the report. The true and full value of farm property this year was stated at $2,712,841,112, an increase of $581,389,168 or 27 per cent over 1918.

Cloudy with rain tonight; cooler;
Sunday fair.

Lady Mayoress Far From Being Irish Joan of Arc—Gen- tle and Timid.

By Alice Kaho
By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—To those who expected to see a spectacular Irish Joan of Arc
when Mrs. Terence MacSwiney arrived here today, the occasion was a disappointment.

Clad entirely in black with a small
black turtleneck with flat cockade trimmings, surrounded by a square
net veil which fell over her face and a long black broadcloth coat with seal collar, the widow of Terence MacSw-iney faced the rush of reporters and official welcome almost timidly.

From beneath the black turban, masses of dark brown hair, in whose waves flecks of gold are suggested
when the scant rays of the morning sun struck them, were coiled forward
low over her ears.

Great blue eyes, the real Irish blue of which poets sing, fringed with the blackest lashes, looked back at one with friendly gentleness. A large mouth with an unusually long upper lip is saved from ugliness by beautiful teeth and a lovely smile.

The air of youthfulness, of girlish-ness was explained in Mrs. MacSwiney's smiling remarks.

"I am twenty-two and a half years old. My baby Manra is two and a half years old."

The smile which lightened her countenance when a newspaper containing her picture with that of her baby was shown her, brought out the plu-mose quality in a face given to responsive smiles.

The questions which were demanded of Mrs. MacSwiney this morning by scores of members of the press, were startling to her but she refused to answer, promising a statement later.

Finally after much persuasion, she did go on the deck of the Celtic as it nearly the pier and permitted the photographers to snap her picture.

It appeared that she had many friends on board, anti-Sinn Fein
as well as Sinn Fein sympathizers.

"There was never a sweeter, lovelier,
more lovable little woman on this boat," said a steward.

"She is so gentle and considerate and so kind."

His strong cockney accent quivered
with surprising tenderness.

GREECE SHOCKED BY ALLIED NOTE

Grecian Cabinet Considers Sharp Letter Regarding Constantine.

Athens.—On the eve of the plebi-cite which will be held tomorrow to decide whether the Greek people want Constantine as king, the cabinet went into session today to consider the alter note, which declared against his return to the throne.

It was understood the firm tone of the note surprised the Greek ministers who had expected the British would influence the French against offering any real opposition to the return of Constantine.

The principal object of the note, it was believed, was to influence the Greek voters to cast their ballots against Constantine tomorrow.

It was rumored today that if Con-

Whole World Calling For Y.M.C.A. Workers

Appleton People Hear Interesting Discussion at Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

"Calls for workers in Y. M. C. A. work are coming from all parts of Europe," said Harry W. White, secretary of the foreign department of the Y. M. C. A., at the foreign work supper Friday evening in the association building. "They are merely asking for men to organize the association in their country. They offer to handle the work there themselves after they have been taught by the secretaries."

Mr. White told of an incident which occurred in India. A short time ago a tribe leader journeyed to Jerusalem to pay his respects to the new governor or who was entertaining A. C. Hort, once secretary in India, and he asked the man to stay and meet the sheik.

After it was explained that Mr. Hort represented the great organization called the Young Men's Christian association the sheik cried: "Send him with me, I have extra camels to take him. I want him to work among my people. The young men are in need of moral teaching."

"Such calls," said Mr. White, "are coming from all over. I am thinking of Japan. All over that country has begun a great democratic movement.

Students are going to the universities to take up business professions, instead of fitting themselves as machines for war. The young men say that they do not want a group of autocratic people over them. The feeling of democracy has spread far and wide in the country and that movement is due to the influence of the Y. M. C. A. It is a christian movement, and it is only such a movement that will keep Japan from becoming a country like Germany was.

"A few years ago there was no co-operative spirit in China. When Germany took south China, those in the north were indifferent. They said, 'Let them fight it out. It is south China that is in trouble, and we are in north China. But now the spirit has changed.'

It is 25 years ago since the organization went into China at the call of the missionary societies there. Today China has organized 30 city Y. M. C. A's. It is impossible for us to cover the 19 walled cities of China, but we have begun the Christian movement, and it will soon spread over the whole country.

"The president of China is a non-christian. A short time ago when he was entertaining one of the Y. M. C. A. workers, he was asked: 'What is the greatest need of China?' and he made this

SPLENDID PROGRAM FOR ELK MEMORIAL SERVICE

A splendid program has been prepared for the annual Elk memorial service at Elk club at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The principal speaker will be Attorney Victor I. Minnahian of Green Bay, one of the best orators in this part of the state.

The program will open with music, followed by opening ceremonies, conducted by Exalted Ruler F. P. Young, assisted by lodge officers. The opening ode will be followed by invocation by the chaplain. Musical numbers will precede and follow the memorial address by Mr. Minnahian.

Closing ceremonies will be conducted by lodge officers after which the members will sing "Auld Lang Syne" and the meeting will close with benediction by the chaplain.

answer. 'If you want to help China, support the Y. M. C. A. It is the greatest work I have ever heard of, and I certainly want it in my country. Send us a few leaders, we will furnish men who will learn to handle the affairs of the organization later on.'

"In India also, there is a great democratic movement on foot."

The speaker said that the same conditions exist in the Near East. Although the leaders of Egypt are Mohammedans they offer to support the work of the association. They say that the young men don't know how to use their education; it is like pouring new wine into old skins.

Mr. White came closer home when he mentioned Mexico. Even in Mexico there is a call for the establishment of the Y. M. C. A. Mexico must be taught the ideals of unselfish service. He said that a number of cities were demanding secretaries, but so far not much action has been taken because of the shortage of leaders. When it was mentioned that one or two secretaries might be sent, General Obregon, the new president of Mexico said: "You must send more. I will not be satisfied with so meager a program."

"That is only an example of the calls," said Mr. White. "that are coming from the world. This year we did not send out one more man than in 1914. High cost prevented us from turning out the leaders we need. In spite of all drawbacks, I am glad and proud of the record of the work of the organization."

TO ASK FUNDS FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF

Campaign Will Be Renewed in County—Malicious Rumors Are Denied.

Preparations are under way for a continuation of the Near East relief campaign in Outagamie county to secure funds for starving Armenians who are wholly dependent on the relief workers. There will be no intensive drive for money but enough contributions will be sought to fill the county's quota.

Last year's organization, headed by Dr. H. E. Potbury as county chairman, will take up the campaign again this year. A few changes may be made. It is probable that the work will be fully under way shortly after January 1.

Miss Nee of Milwaukee, who is connected with the state Near East relief organization, was in Appleton a few days ago to confer with local leaders about the new campaign. She gave an idea of what was wanted of Outagamie people and assisted in formulating tentative plans.

One of the most important matters presented by Miss Nee was a contradiction of unwarranted criticism aimed at the Near East relief work, based upon an article in the Chicago Tribune last October. The article told of sentencing G. B. Davis to four years' hard labor at Constantine for stealing flour and milk from the relief warehouse. Four others were sentenced to pay from $300 to $2,000 fine.

Not Relief Workers
Stories have been spread abroad that those men were accredited Near East relief workers, who were tempted to steal because of lax management. Official investigation revealed that they were discharged American soldiers who went from France to Turkey and were temporarily employed as warehouse laborers and not in actual relief work. They took about $20,000 worth of goods, of which $10,000 worth was recovered and part of the balance will also be retrieved, according to the officials. It was because the Near East commission prosecuted the men instead of hushing it up, that the story became public.

The real injury to the cause came when the accused men tried to retaliate by giving false testimony in court, alleging that they were victims of administration so lax that crookedness, dishonesty and graft not only were countenanced but almost were encouraged. Not a line of their testimony was substantiated by the court although Turkish and anti-Christian propagandists took up the stories and spread them broadcast as true. Stories of wine parties and debauches by so-called relief workers were disproven, as every accredited relief worker must swear to his total abstinence before he is accepted for duty.

No Money Lost
The general secretary of the Near East Relief has issued these statements as a convincing summary to prove how far removed the movement is from the petty lies that are abroad.

More than $50,000,000 in cash and supplies have been administered with out the loss of a dollar.

More than 500 American men and women, at great personal sacrifice, have administered this relief. Some of them have died, victims of contagious disease.

There are 229 orphanages; 110,000 children have been cared for.

There are 63 hospitals, with a daily average of some 7,000 patients.

Half a million Armenians living today would have perished but for American relief.

FOREIGN WIRES ON U. S. MARKET

Wire Makers Beginning to Feel Competition of European Manufacturers.

The wire industry of Fox river valley and the country at large is beginning to feel foreign business competition according to a representative of the Wisconsin Wire Works who asserted that orders for foreign wires were being placed by some of the paper mills of Wisconsin at a less figure than they can be manufactured here at home. The difference in price is due to the difference in the cost of labor.

During the war wire manufacturers had an opportunity to sell their product on the foreign market at a fabulous price and while some of them took advantage of the opportunity the majority looked after the wants of their regular patrons at home at a less profit.

The wire industry is an auxiliary of the paper industry and the demand for paper controls the demand for wires. The Wisconsin Wire Works has not so far felt the business depression to any great extent and is still operating with practically a full force of employees.

TRY NEW PLAN FOR RED CROSS VOTE

Directors Will Be Elected Before December 8 by Newspaper Ballot.

A new plan is to be tried by the Outagamie Red Cross chapter to secure a popular vote in its annual election. The chapter voted to conduct a newspaper ballot instead of holding a mass meeting. The meeting plan as tried in former years, met with little success.

The nominating committee has prepared a list of 18 names approved by the executive committee, which appear on a ballot on another page of this issue. The people are expected to vote for nine out of the 18 by marking "x" after the names. The ballot is to be mailed to Mrs. George Woelz, chapter secretary, before Wednesday evening, December 8.

The nominees are Homer H. Benton, P. M. Conker, William Fountain, J. P. Frank, T. A. Gallagher, Mrs. Gustave Keller, Mrs. A. G. Meating, L. J. Marshall, Paul Nyhus, Dr. H. E. Peabody, P. H. Ryan, D. # The Stage

"Hitchy Koo" That catchy chorus of Sixteen Sweet Sixteens is the way Raymond Hitchcock describes the young ladies who furnish the dazzling beautiful backgrounds for the various ensemble numbers in the second edition of Hitchy-Koo, the sensational successful musical comedy review which is to be seen at Appleton theatre, Wednesday, Dec. 8.

In this connection it is announced that there is at least one management in the theatrical business which considers it bad showmanship to indulge in the gross exaggerations and insincere advance promises that have come to mark the methods of so many theatrical organizations in recent years. Mr. Raymond Hitchcock is of the opinion that exact figures are what the public which support the theatre has a right to demand.

The cast includes Stan Stanley, Jack Flano, Pifer Trio, Artie Leeming, John Haw, Frank Cornell, Juana Cunningham, Wood Sisters, Ruth Downie, Frank Miller, Bert Leighton, Olle Northland, Bagley Sisters, Helen Collins, Helen Stanley, Baby Josephine, Ruth Weston, and the company's own symphonized orchestra.

BLAMES TROUBLES ON 'CAPITALISTS'

Kimberly Priest Bitterly Attacks "Capitalistic System" in Address.

Claiming that the people have sold themselves body and soul to the big interests and that the national chamber of commerce is an octopus which has spread itself over the entire United States, the Rev. P. K. Van Nistleroy gave his closing lecture of a series on the "Labor Question" at Little Chute.

"The national chamber of commerce, New York, has served notice on the American Federation of Labor to kill unionism," said Father Van Nistleroy. "It has its walking delegates everywhere. In our own vicinity two such delegates came to one of our big industrial managers and offered him $200 as a bribe if he would crush unionism in his plant. The manager resented the bribe because he had the spirit of cooperation with his men."

"We are the fault of such actions because of our indifference, especially at the polls. The national chamber of commerce has put three million men out of employment by closing down industries. The consumer's only protection is unionism and if he be united he can break the capitalist system."

The speaker opened his address by quoting from the encyclical on "Christian Democracy" by Pope Leo XIII, in which it is stated that socialism intends to eliminate the social inequality existing in the world but its system is bound to fail because it is anti-economic and anti-religious. He also quoted from Dr. Ryan's economic writings in which he says the cooperative movement will triumph when people go back to strict observance of the Ten Commandments.

"We have wandered far from the christian democracy which promotes the welfare of every citizen and of no class in particular," Father Van Nistleroy continued. "Our laws are framed to promote the welfare of the few; namely, the capitalists. We maintain our soldiers in Russia because of America's interests in that land, plus the British interests. For the same reason we have our boys in Antwerp and Brussels, Belgium."

Referring to the lack of profiteering in countries such as Belgium and Holland where christian democracy predominates, he said: "We must send men to represent us who will enact or cause to enact laws which will make profiteering punishable by law. We have a few such men, among them Senator Borah."

Profiteering was illustrated when the speaker referred to a leather suitcase bought by a friend of his at $35 when the leather and labor in it cost only $10.

"We lack today the spirit of conscience," he stated. "We are two quarts blood, some muscle and bone and the rest merely pork. Liberty is license and gauged in dollars and cents. The people of France hoped to attain liberty, fraternity and equality thru the French revolution. The spirit was lacking and instead they obtained license, cut-throat methods and inequality."

The speaker closed with an appeal for unionism, urging others, like the railroad men, to buy only union label goods. He answered a number of questions put by his hearers.

BUSINESS TO PICK UP SOON, BOYD SAYS

Head of Coated Paper Company Is Optimistic Despite Present Slump.

"Business is very quiet," said Charles S. Boyd, president and treasurer of the Appleton Coated Paper company Friday. "Dealers are with-holding orders, but it is thought that stocks are low. It is generally expected that there will be an improvement, however, soon after the first of the year."

Mr. Boyd said that he did not look for a cut of wages. "But we do expect," he said, "that with the strongly competitive condition which will undoubtedly exist in the market for several months that the only manufacturers who will be able to meet competition will be those whose employees give a full day's work for a day's pay."

The new finishing room is now in daily use and relieves the congested condition of the plant. A new 500 horsepower boiler that was ordered some time ago has been shipped and arrangements are being made for its installation.

Mr. Boyd is operating his plant with practically a full force. He is not pessimistic about the future and is of the opinion that the sooner business adjusts itself and gets back on a solid basis the better it will be for all concerned.

CHANGE SUNDAY SCHOOL SCHEDULE AT M. E. CHURCH

A change has been made in the schedule of the First Methodist church school. The primary, junior and intermediate departments will meet at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The beginner's department, and the high school department will convene at 9:45 o'clock and the adult and college departments at ten o'clock. The change was made because the members of the various departments preferred to meet earlier than had been the custom. The regular Sunday morning devotional service will be at eleven o'clock as usual. There will be no second preaching service because of the forum at Lawrence Memorial chapel.

The young people of the church will meet for a social hour at five o'clock in the church parlors, followed at 6:30 o'clock with the special Epworth League service at which Dr. W. E. J. Gatz of Chicago will speak.

VARIED PROGRAM FOR CLUB CHORUS CONCERT

Extensive preparations are being made by the Woman's Club chorus for the annual concert which will be given at Lawrence Memorial Chapel Dec. 15. The club is meeting with Prof. Taber, Jr., director, twice a week for rehearsals.

The program will be well balanced, solos, duets and trios interspersing between the choruses. Miss Vern Chamberlain will give a reading and Miss Ruth Schumaker will render a violin solo and will play several violin obbligatos to the choruses.

One of the most interesting choruses is the Russian group. Mr. Taber has selected especially attractive numbers. Many of the old favorite Christmas carols are included in the repertoire. While simpler in musical form than the Russian group, the carols are proving to be exceedingly attractive numbers.

A group of modern songs conclude the program. The concert is sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota, a musical honorary sorority at Lawrence Conservatory of Music.

UNUSUAL CONCERT HERE WEDNESDAY

Serge Prokofieff and Emma Patten Hoyt Make Splendid Combination.

A concert of the kind usually heard only in the famous music halls of the largest cities will be given the people of Appleton in the third number of the Appleton Community and Artist Series Wednesday evening at Lawrence Memorial chapel. Those who have selected this year's course feel that this will be the outstanding number of the series.

The recital will be given by Serge Prokofieff, Russian composer-pianist, and Emma Patten Hoyt, Chicago soprano. Both carry the press commentaries that only the most skilled artists merit. Miss Hoyt sings with wonderful poise and control. Her songs come to her hearers with ease and understanding. Her directness of expression is said to be delightful. Reports interesting and alarming of performances of music by Serge Prokofieff, one of the youngest and most daring of Russian composers, and a recent arrival in this country, had been coming over the wires from New York and Chicago.

LOCAL DEALERS CUT PRICE OF CEMENT

In an effort to stimulate building, Appleton dealers in cement have announced a reduction in price to $3.50 a barrel, a cut of 40 cents from the old price. None of the dealers have new cement on hand, the reduction applying to cement purchased at the old rate. The new price is for the cement, but does not include the bags.

Detective Duvall took three boys to the police station. Ervin Schultz, 15, man La Fond and another named Backus, who admitted that they had pushed the automobile to its hiding place in fun. They are to appear at the police station Saturday evening in connection with the case.

Will Your Gas Range Cook With the Gas Turned Off?

Sounds like a foolish question, doesn't it? Yet it isn't at all, because there is one gas range that does exactly that very thing.

IT IS

The CHAMBERS FIRELESS GAS RANGE

It does one-half to four-fifths of your cooking with the gas turned off. It roasts, broils, bakes and stews; and does them all better than the most expensive gas range.

Think of putting a four or five pound chicken or a roast into the oven, turning on the gas 20 or 25 minutes, long enough to heat the oven and meat thoroughly, and then turning off the gas and letting the range continue the cooking process at full speed, without danger of burning, while you go shopping and attend to other household duties.

Thousands of housewives are using the Chambers Fireless Gas Range today and tell us that it saves from one-half to four-fifths of their gas bills, and even gas companies in their official tests of the Chambers Fireless Gas Range alongside of other well-known ordinary gas ranges admit a saving of 48.2 per cent gas.

Let us tell you about the 25 wonderful distinctive features and advantages of this revolutionary stove—new to most people but old enough to be practical. (Ten years since the first one was made.)

CITY MANAGERS
Two hundred American cities now are being directed by city managers. City management is nothing more than the operation of city government by methods in use in private business. That this method of running a city no longer is an experiment or governmental fad, was made evident when 200 experienced city managers held a convention recently to exchange ideas.
The mere fact that these men were getting together for the common good of their collective communities was in itself significant of the value of the new method. The old political system of municipal government still has staunch defenders—and they may be right—but whoever heard of the politically-chosen mayors of 200 cities holding a convention for the purpose of exchanging ideas and experiences?
The manager plan of municipal government has developed a group of experts who know cities as other experts know science and business. It is based on the idea that the city government is the largest business institution in any city, and, therefore, deserves expert management by political organizations.
Politicians have claimed that the city manager plan is not democratic in that it centralizes authority in an appointed official. But it is pure democracy compared to the autocratic political boss systems that it has supplanted in many communities. The political boss is the invisible government responsible to no one; the city manager is a boss, too, but a visible boss, directly responsible to the Community.
The city manager plan was born in Staunton, Va., twelve years ago, and it is not recorded that any city abandoned the plan after once adopting it.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR CHRISTMAS
For generations Thanksgiving was a New England rather than an American institution. Only within comparatively modern times has the day been universally observed in this country, but in New England it is almost as old as the landing of the Mayflower. It is a curiously interesting fact that the early New Englanders invented Thanksgiving day as a substitute for Christmas. The Puritans refused to "observe" the birthday of the Lord Jesus Christ because in England it had become a day of too much sporting, roystering and indulgence in dissipation. Christmas having become too "merry" to suit their taste, they turned against Christmas itself, not only refusing to celebrate it but punishing those who did. The man who recognized the 25th of December by stopping work was "liable to discipline or a penalty."

Through the greatest day of the year from the earliest times in Virginia and "kindly regarded" in New York and Pennsylvania, Christmas was generally ignored in New England. Living residents of that section have been quoted as saying that even as late as the time of their fathers and mothers there was still a large population which looked upon Christmas as a minor and unimportant holiday while preparing for the great day of Thanksgiving weeks ahead. All this explains why President Jefferson (1801-9) refused to issue Thanksgiving proclamations, and why this day of turkey-eating and football playing has never, in the country generally, become the serious religious festival intended by the early Puritans.

CHURCH "MOVIES"
It is announced that five thousand churches in America have contracted to present moving pictures, and, whatever the individual churchman's attitude toward it, the fact is of importance. Some will call it progress; others will see in it a concession to degenerating influences. Possibly a proportion of those who deplore it will reluctantly approve on the ground that the decrease in Sunday school attendance of four million in a single year calls for radical measures. Of course the object of church movies will be to instruct as well as to entertain.

As a means of instruction in Bible story the movies could be made remarkably effective, and nothing else could do as much in these times to fill the gaps in the Biblical education of the younger generation. The memorable narratives of the Old Testament have all the essential requirements for picturesque and effective moving-picture drama. The New Testament tells a greater story still, but one too sacred for theatrical handling. The dramatic appeal of the Bible stories is very powerful, even when they are merely read, as has been recognized by men of the highest levels of literary taste. It was the dramatic quality as well as the poetic form of the stories of ancient Israel that caused Byron to say that, while the New Testament was to him a task, he found the Old Testament a continuing joy. It is to be hoped that the 5,000 churches can afford to pay for the most skilled scenario writers and for screen actors of the highest ability. The great Bible stories call for and should have the best possible handling.

CABINET-MAKING
Building cabinets for presidents-elect has been a popular quadrennial pastime, ever since George Washington's administration. The first cabinet, organized in 1789, consisted of a secretary of state, secretary of war, secretary of the treasury and an attorney general. Next the place of postmaster general was created, but it was not then regarded of sufficient dignity to entitle the postmaster general to a seat in the cabinet. Later, however, the postmaster general was admitted to the official family circle.
The expansion of the cabinet has generally kept pace with America's governmental needs. Nine years after the first cabinet was created, the navy department was organized and a secretary of the navy joined the cabinet. Fifty-one years elapsed before the circle around the cabinet table opened to let in a new member—the secretary of the interior. And 40 years later, in 1889, it was deemed advisable to give the farmers a seat and a place was made for the secretary of agriculture.
The first secretary of commerce and labor was appointed in 1903, but ten years later the work was divided so that now the cabinet has ten members. President-elect Harding has suggested there ought to be a secretary of public welfare. The suggestion is a good one, for we assume it would include public health, which ought to be raised to the dignity of cabinet proportions and we trust that the suggestion will be acted upon by congress.

TERCENTENARY
How fitly symbolized by that Plymouth Rock
Were those old Pilgrims of that sturdy stock
Who stepped ashore one bleak December day
Three hundred years away.
What will you for your conscience? Will you stand Against wild beasts and men of some wild land,
And with harsh nature and a niggard soil
Wrestle in endless toil?
Will you uproot your home and spread your sail
Against the roaring sea and wintry gale,
Forsaking all the landmarks of your kind
To keep an unbound mind?

SOME SMILES IN RHYMES
Says Grandpa Gloom to Sonny Smiles, "It's raining hard today. And all the folks will be downcast who want to go and play." Says Sonny Smiles, "Perhaps they will, but I know folks who'll grin to see the rain. They're farmer folks. So pull your grouch back in."
Says Grandpa Gloom, "The sun is out and clothing men are sad. They cannot sell their overcoats unless the weather's bad." Says Sonny Smiles, "I guess that's true but still the folks who buy are glad to see such weather now so stop your gloomy cry."
"The clouds have covered up the stars. There's not a one above. And lovers quarrel, for they say, that stars help them make love." Says Sonny Smiles, "Again you're wrong, for lovers need no light to beckon them along their path if love is shining bright."
"The sea is angry with the world," said grouchy Grandpa Gloom. "It batters against the rocky shore with crashing, maddened boom." Says Sonny Smiles, "The sea is only singing out its song of happiness and joy to those who've know it well and long."

THIS CITY DIDN'T FORGET ONE DEBT
Morgantown, W. Va.—When city council learned there was a mortgage of $2,200 on the home of James Kennedy, former fire chief, killed in discharge of his duties, the councilmen unanimously voted funds from the city treasury to pay off the mortgage.

THE ARREST OF TUBERCULOSIS
In a contribution on arrestment of tuberculosis, read before the National Tuberculosis Association and published in the New York Medical Journal, Dr. F. M. Pottenger gives this definition of the disease: Tuberculosis is a chronic infectious inflammatory process in which there is a long interval between the time of infection and the clinical manifestation of the disease. While tuberculosis undergoes a stage of evolution that it noted in a boil much same type—implantation (of the germs) on the body surface—induration (hardening) around the focus of infection, necrosis (death of the "core"), rupture, and healing—these changes take place extremely slowly, taking weeks, months or years for the cycle instead of a few hours or days. Often the stage of necrosis and rupture falls to appear, the process remaining as an induration for a long period and then changing into scar tissue. The infection does not become a clinical disease (that is, does not noticeably impair health) until sufficient toxins (the poisons produced by the tubercle bacilli) have passed out from the focus of infection in the lung into the blood, or until it produces some local change which makes its presence known, such as pleurisy, sputum or spitting of blood.
There is room here to quote only a few pearls of wisdom from Dr. Pottenger's contribution. Patients should read them over now and again.
"Strength must be conserved to fight the infection in every way possible. If the patient exercises when the disease is active this principle is disregarded."
Toxemia (poisons produced by the bacilli) and passed out into the blood stream should be eliminated as soon as possible because of its deleterious influence on the body functions. . . . If the patient exercises when the disease is active this principle, too, is disregarded."
It has been found a good rule to "treat patients until physical exercise, such as walking from one to ten miles, according to the condition of the patient, produces no sign of toxemia, and until the chest signs are no longer indicative of a lesion likely to reactivate and spread. The patient may then be allowed to interrupt treatment, following a restricted regime with only occasional supervision for a period of from three to nine months, when he should return for another period of strict guidance." The length of time required to which the disease has progressed before diagnosis and treatment are obtained, and one the patient's mentality and deportment. "The length of time required for this is far longer than is usually believed. In early cases this may take two years or more, and in advanced cases the time is proportionately longer."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Laugh and Grow Fat
If you were a girl 17 years, 6 inches tall, a freshman at college, and weighed but 108 pounds when you should, according to your gym teacher, weigh 130 pounds, what would you do? (M. E. McK.)
ANSWER—I dunno. Maybe I'd cry. Or maybe I'd write to this department and say, "Dear Dr. Brady, please tell me how I can gain weight," and I'll enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the doctor's convenience.
The Constipated Habit
Is constipation listed—as I suppose it is—among that vast number of diseases or ailments for which you refuse to prescribe in individual cases? (W. G. R.)
ANSWER—No. Constipation is just a bad habit and I'll be pleased to send you detailed suggestions for overcoming the habit if you will accompany your request with a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Vinegar's a Pizon
Is vinegar harmful? My husband insists upon using it on almost everything he eats. (Mrs. O. G. D.)
ANSWER—It is chiefly dilute acetic acid, which comes under poisons, not foods. Lemon juice is a wholesome substitute if the sourness is craved. The moderate use of vinegar as a condiment is harmless, so far as I know.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Saturday, Dec. 7, 1895
Herman Erb was in Milwaukee on business. Ten tramps were sent up from Kaukauna to the county jail.
The Misses Emma Peabody and Anna Tenney were visiting Fond du Lac friends.
D. L. Dettlaff of Milwaukee had arrived home to spend Sunday with his family.
Reports from George Blasing, who was at Colorado Springs, Col., were to the effect that his health was improving.
Capt. George Zinn of Milwaukee and E. M. Mann of Oshkosh visited Little Kaukauna to look over the lock which was to be rebuilt.
At the meeting of the Appleton Cycling club the night previous, the Rev. John Faville and J. W. McGovern were elected as representatives of the club to attend the meeting of division officers and representatives at Marinette Dec. 20, at which meeting was to be settled the location of the next state and national circuit meet.
The indications were that Appleton would land it.
The new officers of the George D. Eggleston Post, G. A. R. were: commander, C. H. Hilbert; senior vice, James Lennon; junior vice, W. H. Chilson; officer of the day, A. M. Cole; quartermaster, F. W. Kutler; surgeon, A. W. Kanouse; chaplain, W. D. Gibson.
D. B. Bailey, most worthy templar, was to deliver a temperance lecture at Shawano the following Monday evening under the auspices of the Temple of Honor.
One of the new paper machines of the Wisconsin Paper Pulp and Paper company started up at a speed of 355 feet per minute. The crew of men in charge of the machine was not accustomed to running at such a rate and it was found necessary to slow down to 335 feet until it became more skillful. The contract rate was 400 feet.
Architect C. B. Pride was in Chicago on a business trip.
THIEF SENDS 'EM HOME IN NATURE'S
Kansas City, Mo.—Ten athletes composing basketball teams of the Midway National and New England National Banks rode shivering home in taxicabs, clad only in their abbreviated "gym" costumes, when a thief looted the dressing room in the Y. M. C. A. here during a game.
CO-EDS BECOME SERVANTS FOR CHARITY
Knoxville, Tenn.—Co-eds at the University of Tennessee have their own solution of the servant girl problem. When seven servants went on a strike, 80 of the co-eds sent in a written request that they be permitted to do the work, and the money which would ordinarily go to servant girl hire is to be sent to Herbert Hoover to be applied to the relief of European children.
French government employees, numbering 2,282, have been arrested, dismissed or suspended in connection with the sale of left-over American, British and French war stocks.

The Return Of Silver.

By Frederic J. Haskin
Salt Lake City, Utah—The quest of silver, which played so important a part in the development of this country, is again attracting large numbers of fortune-seekers to the West. For the first time in many quiet years, Salt Lake City is thronged with prospectors on their way back and forth from the mountains, where mining camps that have slumbered longer than Rip Van Winkle are stirring in their sleep and threatening a renewal of their former activity.
Silver is once more coming into its own. The reason is that the world's demand for it is much greater than the present available supply, which condition is sufficient to keep the price of silver at a fair figure for years to come. One hears much excited conjecture as to the future of the metal here in Salt Lake City, which is the greatest smelting center in the world. As such, it receives practically all of the silver ore produced on this continent—ore from Mexico and Canada as well as that from Utah, Nevada, and Montana mines. The largest silver mines are in Mexico; the largest silver mine in this country is in Montana, and the second largest in Utah. Some of this product is shipped by way of San Francisco to the Orient, but the greater part goes to London.
The history of silver, of its rise and fall, is curiously romantic. Once, a king among metals, fought for by the tentages and pirates, and capable of drawing an army of fortune-hunters across a continent, silver tottered and fell, after demoralization in 1873, until dozens of silver mines were compelled to close down. Before the late war, the owner of a silver mine was not to be envied. He was in the same position as many owners of gold claims today, who cannot afford to operate them. Mining costs were too high, and the price of silver too low.
The greatest demand for silver has always been in the Orient. There are only two great countries in the world which are not on a gold basis, and these are called silver nations. This is because they are heavily in debt to other nations, and must trade with them on whatever terms their creditors see fit. If China could succeed in developing its splendid natural resources so that it could get out of debt, it could demand payment for its goods in gold. But until then it will have to take silver.
India, the Silver Sink
In India the coinage is entirely of silver, which is minted by the British Government. The demand for silver for personal adornment is also very great in that country, owing to preference of the people for carrying their wealth about with them. Thieves flourish so successfully in India that this is an almost necessary precaution. At the cry of "Thief!" in the night, the average native family merely gets up and runs, carrying its riches in the form of bangles, rings and chains. The same custom is observed in certain parts of our own West, where the men carry their wealth not in the form of silver, but of diamonds.
The silver authorities in Salt Lake City speak of India as the silver sink. They say they don't know what the world will do in the future, but that no silver which ever comes into India, ever comes out.
While this is a slight exaggeration, of course, it is true that a great deal of metal is hoarded from generation to generation, through which it is passed down much in the same form as the families of other nations pass down their real estate. Widows in India, for instance, have no dowry right, but they are permitted to keep their ornaments, which naturally causes the native women to demand as many silver necklaces as possible.
All of the Indian supply of silver coinage is provided by the British Government, which therefore has always been interested in keeping the price of silver down. For when the price of silver rises above the value of the Indian rupee, which is 94 cents, everybody immediately melts place speaks of three wise men.
L. C. R.
A. There is no actual statement in the Bible regarding the number of wise men who visited Christ at His birth, or of their status. It is a question that has been much debated by Biblical scholars. Tertullian and Justin Martyr claimed that they came from Arabia and assumed that they were three in number from the three gifts—gold, frankincense and myrrh. Eastern tradition, however, places the number at twelve. The Persian Avesta, which corresponds to the Christian Bible, names them as three sons of Zoroaster. They are also variously supposed to have come from Chaldean, Ethiopia, India and Persia.
Q. Where can I find out if a stone or rock that I have found contains any mineral of value? Z. D.
A. The United States Geological Survey is prohibited by law from making assays for the use of private parties or associations. If you wish a sample of your stone or rock to be analyzed, you must take it to the Survey, at Washington, D. C., they will give an opinion based on a test of the specimen. If an assay is desired the proper course is to employ a private assayer or chemist.
Q. Where did the weed known as devil's paintbrush come from? O. P.
A. Orange hawkweed, also known as devil's paintbrush, red daisy, flame-weed, and grim-the-coller was brought from Europe to New England for a garden flower, on account of its attractive flame-colored flowers. Its weed-like propensities enabled it to escape bounds, and it has become one of the worst hayfield and pasture weeds in New England, New York, and Pennsylvania.
Q. How much does plate glass weigh? A. B. R.
A. Plate glass weighs about 3 1/2 pounds to the square foot. It varies in thickness from three-tenths to one-half an inch.
Q. How old are Vardon and Ray, the English gold professionals? C. S. W.
A. Harry Vardon is 51 years of age, and Edward Ray is 43.
Q. How many Americans received the Croix de Guerre? How many of the Distinguished Service Order of the British Government? C. W. L.
A. The War Department says that there have been between 10 and 11 thousand Croix de Guerre medals awarded to American soldiers and

TALKS ON CITIZENSHIP

How Laws are Made
Congress is a great factory for the making of laws. While it would not be quite true to think of it as a series of machines through which raw material is run, yet the material out of which many of our laws are made is exceedingly raw and the processes through which it is run very mechanical.
Congress meets the first Monday in December each year. A new House of Representatives is organized every odd numbered year. The clerk of the preceding House calls the roll of the members properly chosen. If a quorum is present, they proceed to elect a speaker. After his election, he takes the oath of office, and then administers it to the other members. Then follows the election of a chief clerk who is responsible for keeping the minutes of the House, a sergeant-at-arms, who keeps order, a chaplain who offers prayer at the sessions, a doorkeeper and a postmaster. About sixty committees are next elected to consider bills when referred to them by the speaker. The committees are composed of from 5 to 15 members, the majority comprising each committee are of the dominant party. Having completed the election of officers and committees the House is ready for business.
When Congress was first organized, in 1789, the senators were divided into three groups. As new states have been admitted the senators have been distributed to these groups in such a way as to keep the groups as nearly equal as possible. The members of one group are elected each two years. This makes the Senate a continuous body and no reorganization is necessary. When a new Congress opens, the Vice-President of the United States takes the chair and calls the Senate to order. A president pro tempore, to serve as president of the Senate during the absence of the Vice-President, is elected, the other officers similar to those in the House, take their places and the members of some sixty committees are elected and the Senate is ready to do business.
Bills, except those for raising revenue, may originate in either house of Congress. Revenue bills must originate in the House of Representatives. This is due to the fact that the House represents the people and the people pay the taxes. It was believed that the House would be most careful in placing tax burdens upon the public.
A bill is introduced by a member of the House handing it to the speaker or of the Senate to the president, if it is a public bill and to the clerk if it is a private bill. It is immediately referred to the proper committee, that is the one organized to consider that class of bills. The committee may "pigeon-hole" the bill, that is give it no consideration at all; or it may hold hearings, examine witnesses, confer with interested persons, amend the bill, report it for passage or for indefinite postponement. Because thousands of bills must be considered each session, the committee system is a necessity. The committees exercise a very great influence upon legislation. Since the members of Congress are unable to study the 10,000 to 15,000 bills introduced each session, the recommendations of the committees are ratified in the vast majority of cases.
The Committee on Rules prepare the daily calendar, that is determine what bills reported by the regular committees shall receive consideration by the House. Once upon the calendar, a bill passes to a second reading, an engrossment, and a third reading. The steps are the same in each house.
When a bill has passed both houses of Congress it is submitted to the President of the United States. If he approves, he signs it and it becomes a law. If he does not he returns it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated. If, after full consideration, two-thirds of the members of each house agree to pass it, the bill becomes a law the same as if the President had signed it. If any bill is not returned by the President within ten days (excluding Sundays) after it is presented to him, it becomes a law the same as if he had signed it, unless Congress by its adjournment prevents its return in which case it does not become a law.
Such is the process of making laws. With Federal activities becoming more and more important we should be deeply interested in the making of just laws. Let us watch the doing of Congress which begins work next Monday.
(One week from today Professor Kinsman will discuss, "What Congress may do.")
The Recall
What is the recall? A. L. B.
Answer—The recall is a process by which an officer who fails to perform his duty may be removed from office by a vote of the people before his term expires.
President's Cabinet
How are the members of the President's Cabinet selected? S. E. M.
Answer—The President nominates the members of his Cabinet and they are confirmed by the Senate. It has long been the practice of the Senate to always confirm the nominations since it is believed the President must be free to choose his own advisers.

In preparing acidulated water one is sometimes rather at a loss as to just how much vinegar or lemon juice to add.

A good general rule to follow is to allow about 1 tablespoonful of acid to 1 quart of water. This is the proportion necessary to produce firmness but not to taste.

 "Circus potatoes" are nothing more nor less than potatoes boiled with meat and served in the gravy made from the broth. The dumplings are made before the gravy and it means fast work to make the gravy and get everything on the table before the dumplings cool. But it can be done.

TELEPHONE RATES ARE INCREASED

Higher Schedule Became Effective Dec. 1—Hits All Phone Users.

Appleton telephone subscribers will find their monthly bills materially increased as a result of a rate increase granted by the Wisconsin railroad commission, effective December 1. Practically every telephone user in the city will be affected by the increase.

Application for higher rates was made to the commission several weeks ago. It was the first effort of the Wisconsin Telephone company to raise its rates since 1912 and the commission granted the petition after a hearing in which little or no opposition was offered.

A feature of the new rate is a reduction of 25 cents from the bill if it is paid before the fifteenth day of each month. Heretofore no discount was allowed for prompt payment. The rates quoted in this article are based on payments before the fifteenth day.

Following are the principal rates now in effect here:

One party business line, $4.50 per month, an increase from $3.50.

Two party residence line, $2 per month, was $2.60.

Extension telephone from business line, $1.00 per month, was 60 cents.

One party residence, $2.50 per month, was $2.

Two party residence line, $3 per month, was $1.

Four party residence line, divided ringing, $1.75 per month, was $1.25.

Extension telephone from residence line, 75 cents per month, was 50 cents.

Private exchange rates also were increased by the decision. Hereafter cord switchboards, with operator set, and not to exceed 15 jacks and signals, will cost $4.17. Cordless switchboards will be charged with $4 on the bill instead of $2. Generator circuits will cost $3 instead of $2 and telephone stations in same building as switchboard will be $2 instead of 60 cents on new schedule.

A sharp increase in excess exchange line mileage is indicated in the new schedule. This charge is for telephones outside of the exchange radius of Appleton and includes phones in Kimberly, Little Chute and Neenah on the Appleton exchange. The rate for those phones is 75 cents for each quarter mile outside of the local exchange radius in addition to the basic charge for the service desired. The excess mileage rate for a 2 party line is 37 1/2 cents per quarter mile and for a four party line the charge is 18 1/2 cents per quarter mile.

The same rate of increase granted in Appleton is applied to several other cities, including Green Bay, Oshkosh, Beloit, Kenosha, and Fond du Lac. A slightly greater increase was granted in Racine.

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association)

THE BOOK OF DEBORAH
 Deb in Jim's Arms Was Not Like Ann in Van's Arms

"Ann knows better! A girl knows better by instinct!" I stormed to myself as I turned from the links and ran home.

"Deb knows by instinct. She was so upset by that short ride alone with Jim that she deserted us this morning!"

Thinking of Deb, I remembered what had happened the day before. Deb was in Jim's arms; it was the same scene with different actors. Why had that one been poetical and romantic and this simply horrid?

Why had I failed to blame poor Deb, and why did I blame Ann? I thought about this for a long time. Suddenly the answer came to me.

Deb didn't understand what she was doing until too late; Ann understood from the beginning. One was trading with the sterling coin of love; one with the counterfeit.

Then I had a sharp revelation about my own love for Bob. I demanded integrity in love. I moved had doubted that Bob gave it to me until I found Katherine's handkerchief in his closet.

Not that I compared Bob to Van. Integrity would make love insipid to Van, I feared.

Van had his own code of honor. Gossip ran that he was always the soul of chivalry with the women of his own set. He had a certain kind of pride in that.

And because he didn't consider Ann, the daughter of a movie star, entitled to the respect he paid the rest of us girls, I despised him.

"But Ann has been much to blame,"

ing the week end with friends in the city.

Rabenhorst started action suing for $250 for the loss of his dog, and Kugler counter-claimed on the grounds that his dog died from wounds received in the fight. A jury decided that Rabenhorst was entitled to $175 for the loss of his animal.

Persons have declared that the onus board had proved to them absolutely that the trial was unfair and that Lang was wrongfully convicted. A magician appearing at a local theatre declared Lang was not guilty.

FARMERS SHOULD USE SPLIT LOG DRAGS NOW

"This is a good time for farmers to get out with their split log drags and put their roads in shape," said an Outagamie county farmer today. "The roads are drying off and a few hours work will shape them up for any kind of traffic."

The continued wet weather made some of the highways almost impassable and has caused deep ruts in others. Dragging will work up the crown of the roads so they are smooth and will better withstand more bad weather.

PESTHOUSE CAUSE OF RACINE FIGHT

Wealthy Residents Threaten Court Action to Prevent Its Use.

Racine—Court action is probable because of the plan of the health department of Racine to convert a large residence into an isolation hospital to be used until the new hospital building is completed, a matter of a year or more.

The city has located a large home on South Main street, close to the homes of Racine's wealthiest residents and they declare they will fight to the highest courts before they will permit an isolation hospital to be operated under the windows of their own homes, possibly endangering the lives of wives and children.

The property leased is close to the homes of the late Jerome I. Case, founder of the Case Threshing Machine company; H. M. Wallis, president of the J. I. Case Flow Works company; W. H. Pugh, coal dealer; A. J. Lunt, oil operator; Dr. C. T. Sloan, of the Shoop Medicine company, and of the late Byron B. Northrop, former president of the Manufacturers' National bank.

Officers of the local health board declare that they are compelled to use the large residence because there is no other suitable building available and in case of an epidemic of contagious disease the city would be unable to use the isolation hospital now outside the city limits.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

WARDEN IS UPHELD FOR SEIZING RIFLE

Merrill—Judge A. H. Reid issued a decision in the case of Percy Hutton vs. John B. Foenot, game warden, for the recovery of a rifle seized by the latter. The judge ruled for the defendant and refutes the claim of the plaintiff that the game law, which provides that no gun can be carried in a vehicle unless it is knocked down or in a carrying case, would interfere with a sheriff's posse carrying a rifle in a vehicle unless knocked down or enclosed in a case. The judge says that the statute relates to hunting expeditions and the pursuit of game.

G. M. Sheldon, attorney for the plaintiff, asked for reargument and said that the defendant had started out on a hunting expedition, but that after the auto had failed to operate properly, the expedition had been dropped and that from this angle he believed the court unable to classify the intended expedition as subject to the game laws of the state as there was no evidence of pursuit of game.

The court held that confiscation of a gun is a reasonable penalty for violation of a game law.

Need Better System Of Marketing Here

Increased Production Useless
Unless Product Can Be Marketed.

By Hugh G. Corbett
(Sec'y, Chamber of Commerce)

We hear a great deal these days about production. In fact it is the demand of the hour. But there will be no great increase of production unless the producer can market his products at a profit.

When we learn to market profitably—when we learn to work together—city and country cooperate to establish a practical distributive system, then and not until then, will the problem of greater production take care of itself. When we know we can market or distribute all we can produce at a figure that will give us a margin of profit we will then be more enthusiastic about producing more.

If we haven't a practical and efficient marketing system, it isn't anybody's fault but our own. We can have one if we really want it. Only three things will be required: Patience, perseverance and cooperation.

We can't expect to work out a profitable marketing system in a week, a month or a year. It may take several years, but it is worth the time and effort. No matter how hard we may try to work out this problem, it can never be worked out without cooperation between town folks and farm folks. Those of us who live in the city cannot "put it over" alone. Neither can those of us who live in the country.

Why should we buy Oregon apples when we can raise just as good in the Fox River Valley? We shouldn't. But we do! Why? Not because they are better apples, but because they are better marketed. Are graded for size and quality and demand. Standardization grading, growing the same variety, using trade name—these things have made Oregon apples famous all over America; these things have made various products of various other sections of the country famous. They have opened a nation-wide market for those products. When we learn to standardize—learn how to select the grade most in demand, we will not only broaden our market, but will create a better market at home.

We can make the Fox River Valley famous if we will grow one standard breed of cattle. One standard breed of hogs, one popular variety of apples of potatoes—some one kind of product for which there is always a market, then we will become noted for that one thing, and our products will be in demand.

We must remember that uniformity of trade attracts the big buyers. When we standardize our marketing, merchants can afford to operate on smaller margins. We should have a training school in standardizing and marketing a school where we could study the successful methods of other communities.

To do these things properly we must advertise, so as to attract buyers from other parts of the country to our specialized products. We must build attractive stock pavilions for the display and sale of our stock and we must provide adequate warehouses and storage facilities for the care of our products until market conditions are right. We must have a central information bureau, or clearing house through which the man who wants to buy can get in touch with the man who wants to sell—through which the producer can get in touch with the retailer and consumer. We must have good roads so we can get our

DADS TO BE GUESTS AT LEGION EVENT

Attractive Program Is Planned for Meeting at Elk Hall Monday.

Monday night will be "O. D. Shirt" night at the meeting of the Oney Johnston post of the American Legion. Members will wear their army shirts so they can be distinguished from their dads, who are to be the honor guests of the post.

Every member has received an invitation to the meeting at Elk hall, with absolute orders to bring his dad or adopt a dad for the evening. The fathers of boys who died in service were given a special invitation to attend.

The post will have as its guests the executive committee of the Outagamie County Council of Defense, and members from the Little Chute, Seymour and Neenah posts.

The program will open with a brief business session at 7:30 o'clock at which a large number of new members will be received. The Seymour delegation promises to put on some unique musical "stunts" and there will be a community singing of the army songs, accompanied by Max Schults at the piano. A few brief addresses appropriate to the occasion will be made. A Dutch lunch and "smokes" will be served.

products to market during any season, and in all kinds of weather.

Lack of an efficient marketing system means waste. Waste stands between us and real success. Let us eliminate waste by better methods of distribution.

Paul H. Wright, acting boys' work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has just issued an appeal for the support of the people to the "American Youth" the official boys' work magazine of the Y. M. C. A. He says that state officers have asked every association in the state to campaign for increased circulation. Unless the circulation is increased, the paper will have to cease publication.

"If, through our indifference," said Mr. Wright, in the letters which he is sending a people in Appleton, "such a thing should take place, it would be a severe blow to work among the boys in this country. We cannot allow a calamity of this nature to occur."

President-elect Warren G. Harding made 117 speeches during his campaign.

SAY WOMAN ORATOR IS SPELLBINDER

Mrs. Olesen, Sunday's Forum
Speaker, Wins Tribute in Magazine.

"The Little Spellbinder" is how the Ladies Home Journal describes Sunday's speaker at the People's Forum, Mrs. Annie Dickie Olesen, in its December issue. Mrs. Olesen appears at Lawrence Memorial chapel at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, speaking on the "New Social Consciousness."

The description given by Miss Eliza

both Jordan in her article indicates that the Appleton public is to have a rare privilege in hearing the women's leader. The article says: "Mrs. Olesen is known among her admiring constituents as 'the little spellbinder.' She is one of the most eloquent speakers in the democratic party and her eloquence is of the soul, simple, human and extraordinary appealing. She can make her hearers laugh with tears in their eyes. She can make the tears come while they are laughing. She has no use for shams or frills or hypocrites or for those who represent them. Her simplicity is amazing and her unexpected sophistication equally so. She is constantly surprising her friends. One has her neatly labeled, then is forced to change all the tags. She is alternately a child and a sphinx, absorbing, puzzling, but always interesting and always hard at work for the cause she loves. She made one of the best speeches at the democratic national convention, left a lasting impression on those who heard her, and was in despair during the remainder of the session because she felt that she had not done her party justice."

The forum meeting will open with three organ numbers by Miss Doris Brenner. She will play "Airs from Il Trovatore," Pastoral, "Wilhelm Tell" by Rossini, and "Pilgrim's Chorus," "Tannhauser" by Wagner. There will also be community singing.

Henry Dunsirn, 1129 Ryan street, was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital Friday morning, where he submitted to a serious operation.

CO-ORDINATE WORK OF SOCIAL UNITS

Representatives of 34 Organizations to Discuss Co-operation.

Representatives of 34 Appleton organizations will be invited to the meeting at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening in the French room of the Sherman house to discuss formation of a council of social agencies. The community welfare committee of the chamber of commerce is prepared to consider almost every local activity.

The need of such a body was plainly demonstrated in the community survey taken last summer in this county. Each of the groups studying health, recreation and family welfare urged the need of a coordinating council.

Leaders in community work express the opinion that there is a duplication of civic work that should be remedied. Heads of agencies lack knowledge of what other bodies are doing. It was also found that frequent solicitations for funds are burdensome and unnecessary because other agencies have solicited for the same work.

The council of social agencies brings all the workers together so that each may know the other's plans. The functions of such a council will be explained by Mrs. L. M. Rosing, Milwaukee, general secretary of the central council of social agencies. She will lead an informal discussion.

Visits Community Club

Prof. Emme had intimate contact with the organization at Evanston last year. On Sunday he will lecture on the subject "College students and American Leadership" at Northwestern college, Naperville, Ill.

U. S. WILL NOT HELP TO KEEP UP PRICES

dition is made by the democrats that when the republicans get into power and have the full responsibility for action they will examine the facts carefully before they will help the farmer as against the ultimate consumer or the retailer, as against the wholesaler and manufacturer or any other class. The feeling of this administration is that the economic situation is too complex to be assisted by government paternalism and that if there had been more action taken in the last year toward cooperation with Europe perhaps the European countries would have been better able to buy American goods. In the absence of peace with Germany trade with central Europe has suffered. Cotton for instance was sold in large quantities to Germany and Austria before the war. But owing to the delay in making peace, trade relations with countries with which America is technically at war have been in a state of suspense. Furthermore the allied powers have not yet fixed the exact amount of the German indemnity and until they do that officials believe it is folly to take German or Austrian securities as a basis of credit for American exports. Right or wrong the incumbent administration holds the view that the present plight of the farmer is due to the failure of Europe to become stabilized and that the latter fact is due to America's withdrawal of her financial moral and physical power from the concert of nations.

PLUCKY CAPTAIN STAYS WITH BURNING VESSEL

By United Press Leased Wire
Kingston, Ont. — Captain Thomas Sutherland, pilot of the steamer Schoolcraft, remained on the vessel when he, though in peril of his life at the wheel of his burning vessel, "held her nose against the bank until the last moment was ashore" and beached the blazing schoolcraft on Wolfe island, about 17 miles from Kingston.

The crew of the Schoolcraft took to the lifeboats before the vessel was run on the beach and the captain alone remained with the ship.

All are safe.

The steamer, which was totally destroyed, was on her way to Kingston from Montreal. She was a 1,000 ton vessel owned by Morley Brothers of Midland, Ontario and had been engaged in coal carrying between Erie, Pa., and Montreal.

August Dobs of Shawano was a business visitor in the city Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pierce of Menasha visited friends in Appleton Friday.

Running at high speed around a corner the touring car was wrecked against a curb. Smith and Kelly leaped out and were pursued. When the detectives fired two shots the men dropped two suitcases containing 18 quarts of whiskey. Kelly was caught and jailed but officers searched for Smith for two hours before they found him in a hotel.

The pair were to be arraigned today.

Arrest Two Men on Charge of Bootlegging and for Stealing Autos.

By United Press Leased Wire

The pair were arrested by George B. Stadden and Ed Cuddington, Minneapolis detectives who at the same tely after harvest. This, of course, means throwing millions of pounds of food into the market months in advance of consumption. That depresses the price paid to the farmer, but so does the price paid the speculator and the cold storage man who buy when food is low and plentiful, only to dole it out later at exorbitant prices.

"The remedy, which will give the farmer higher prices and the consumer lower prices, is gradual marketing by the farmer throughout the year. To market this produce gradually, the farmer must have additional credit. Another step in the protective program therefore, will be to demand that congress investigate crop banking to determine how farmers may obtain wider credits."

Others laws to be demanded of congress in the protective program, as outlined by Barrett, include:

Government chartering and encouragement of consumers societies which can buy direct from the farmer; regulation of the meat packing industry; and cold storage business as provided in bills now pending in congress; increase appropriations for the agriculture department and especially for those divisions studying cultivation; effective legislation making compulsory "correct and guaranteed" information on labelling, branding, marking, tagging and otherwise designating the character of seeds, feeds, fertilizers, foods, drugs and materials for wearing apparel; maintenance of the "graduated income and excess profits taxes supplemented by graduated inheritance taxes to furnish the additional revenue needed to meet the expenses of government."

ANOTHER KIND OF GRAFT IS TO BE INVESTIGATED

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington—The interstate commerce commission today opened an investigation into charges of graft and preference in loading and moving coal cars. Gibbs L. Baker, Washington attorney, of the national wholesale coal association, being the first witness. Baker said he had been told that $44,000 was used by a coal company to influence officials of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad but denied completely interviews attributed to him by a press association and by New York newspapers in which he was represented as making general charges of graft in coal movements. Baker said he possessed no such information of his own knowledge but "had heard" various rumors of graft.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Pierce returned Thursday from Ladysmith, where they spent several weeks on a camping trip.

JOHN finally solved the problem by suggesting a smoking stand for Dad! And May spoke of a sweeper for Mother, and for the Kiddie a rocker, chair and table, or doll buggy, dollie coup, or one of those nice doll dressers and chiffoniers at Wichmann's. For I know they've got them. I have seen them in their window.

Perhaps the problem John has solved is your problem right now. If so, you can solve it to your everlasting satisfaction by visiting our store.

HILL MEETS TARTAR IN CADDOCK TONIGHT

Appleton Grappler Bites Off Big Mouthful in Fort Dodge Bout.

Wrestling fans here and in nearby cities are hopeful that the attendance at the bout Wednesday evening, when George Hill, Appleton, meets James Istok, Chicago, at Armory G, will be large enough to warrant continuance of the game here during the winter. Last year several excellent bouts were staged and the attendance at a few of the matches was good, but it fell off during the latter part of the season and the promoters lost money. It is almost a certainty if the first bout fails to attract a sufficient crowd to meet expenses that the attempt to revive the game here will be discontinued.

Hill is in Fort Dodge, Iowa, where he will meet Earl Caddock this evening. Caddock is one of the best

GIPP'S CONDITION IS SLOWLY IMPROVING

By United Press Leased Wire. South Bend, Ind.—The condition of George Gipp, star of Notre Dame's football team, who has been critically ill here for the last week, was reported slightly improved today. Attending physicians reported Gipp rested easily during the last twenty-four hours and although the crisis has not passed, they believe his chances for recovery are good.

known wrestlers in the country and is a favorite in the betting. He has wrestled all the leaders in the game and has an imposing record of victories.

Hill has had considerable experience, but is hardly in the same class as Caddock. If he can win tonight or even hold Caddock even, he will be classed among the best in the country.

According to advance dope, Hill and Istok are evenly matched. Both men have won victories over the same opponents and have been meeting about the same class of grapplers.

YANKEES TO HAVE A SPEEDIER TEAM

Huggins Is Scouring the Bushes for Fleet Footed Baseball Players.

New York.—If Miller Huggins has his way the Yankees of 1921 will be a more fleet footed aggregation than they were last season and in previous campaigns. The little manager realizes that speed must be added to the team if it is to be successful next year, and it looks as though a few of the slow moving members of the team will be among the missing next spring. In their place Huggins hopes to have men who are fleet of foot.

In discussing the future of the Yankees, Manager Huggins said:

"I am going to make efforts to obtain two new outfielders who have in their make-up ability to cover a lot of territory in the outer works and who will also show speed on the base paths. I am also going to try to improve the pitching staff. I am looking for one more pitcher, not necessarily a left-hander. No. Ruth will not be a member of the pitching staff next season. It is my present opinion to retain him in the outfield. If between now and next spring a shift involving the big fellow is made he may land on first base."

The leader of the Yankees was asked about the retirement of Del Pratt.

"I have not heard of Pratt since the close of last season," said Huggins. "I do not know whether or not he will play major league ball next season, but in the event that his services are best to the club I think his place around second base will be filled in a satisfactory manner."

LAMB TRIMS LION IN BATTLE ON GYM FLOOR

The strength of the meek lamb against the mighty lion was demonstrated in the Lawrence college faculty volleyball game Friday evening when Farleys "Lamb" won two out of three games from Fairfield's "Lions". The Lions won the first game 21 to 8; the Lambs took the second, 21 to 15, and the third, 21 to 10. The line up was as follows: Lions—Fairfield, captain; Naylor, Orr, Weston, Youtz, Kinsman and Conrad. Lambs—Farley, captain; Trever, Lymer, Plank, Bagg, MacHarg, Crowe and Mullen.

The game was sponsored by the History club which will use the money for buying equipment. The club turned out strong at the game and rooted for the history professors who happened to be "Lamb". No casualties were reported.

NEW YORK TO SEE FIRST PRO FOOTBALL GAME TODAY

By United Press Leased Wire. New York.—New York and its neighborhood will be introduced to professional football today when Jim Thorpe's Canton Bull Dog team meets the Buffalo All-Stars at the Polo grounds.

From the advance sale of tickets it is expected between 8,000 and 10,000 spectators will see the game.

Both teams worked out yesterday on the gridiron and were pronounced in good shape.

Thorpe, the Indian, said to have been the greatest player of all time, predicted today New York would like the professional game.

CUBS READY TO RELEASE TWO SUSPECTED PLAYERS

By United Press Leased Wire. Chicago.—Reports today were that the Cubs had asked waivers on Claude Hendrix, pitcher, and Buck Herzog, infielder. These two men were mentioned during the Cook county grand jury investigation into gambling on baseball.

The Sox are signing up a big bunch of youthful ball players to take the place of the seven suspended following indictments on charges of crookedness. The two latest to put their names on a Comiskey contract are Harry Haney, a Florida collegian, and George Buisser, a local sand lot player.

STREET CLEANERS HAVE LONG JOB THIS YEAR

Street cleaners are being worked later this winter than was ever known before. Last year they were laid off late in October, but this year with possibly one or two interruptions they have been employed up to the present time. The street flushers have also been rendering a service that is appreciated by practically every merchant and business man on College avenue. Last year at this time there was good sleighing and the weather was cold.

Postoffice Meeting. The problem of rapid and efficient handling of parcel post during the Christmas rush will be discussed at the meeting of the Appleton Postoffice association at the federal building Saturday evening. A supper will be served in the swing room. There will also be a brief address by Edwin Pollnow.

WRESTLING FANS START BIG RIOT IN CHICAGO

Chicago.—Two thousand men, attending a wrestling match at the Haymarket theatre, started a riot when they tried to get their money back, claiming the match was faked. Lights were kicked out, curtains and scenery torn and other damage done before the police reserves arrived and quieted the crowd. The mob threatened the promoters and principals with violence.

The match was between William Demetral and Jack Linow.

Demetral had procured one fall when the referee announced the affair would have to end because of the late hour. As the match had been advertised to go to a finish, the crowd claimed a frameup.

INTERLAKE TEAM LOSES TO OSHKOSH NORMALS

The Interlake Pulp and Paper company basketball team lost its first game of the season to Oshkosh Normal school at Armory G Friday night, 25 to 14. The game was fast and interesting and was witnessed by about 300 fans. Harry Sylvester was referee.

The teachers played the millmen off their feet in the first half, piling up a score of 15 to 4. Interlakes came back in the second period, however, rolling up ten points and holding the visitors even.

Efforts are now being made to arrange a game with either the Milwaukee School of Engineering or Stevens Point Normal for next Saturday night.

The Interlake second team defeated the Valley Iron Works squad, 21 to 15, in the preliminary game.

ONLY A PITTANCE FOR JESS WILLARD

Former Champ Not in a Position to Dictate Amount of Purses.

New York.—For being so greedy about money when he was champion, Jess Willard will have to take a small cut of the receipts when he fights Jack Dempsey again, some time after the first of the year. Dempsey remembers that Willard absorbed $100,000 for that solo tumbling tournament out in Toledo in 1912, while the challenger got only $27,500 and had to pay out most of that.

The fighters will gamble with the promoters this time, waiving a guarantee and accepting a percentage of the gate receipts, so Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager says. But the division of that percentage will be about 75 per cent to the champion, win, lose or draw and 25 per cent to Willard. Dempsey and Kearns are willing to bet on the drawing powers of the bout because they believe it would take in more money than any other fight ever held, especially if Willard troubled to train hard for it.

Willard can't dictate terms to Dempsey this time and Kearns' attitude is that the Pottawatomie peasant can fight for the odd change and a crack at the championship or not fight at all. There are plenty of push-overs to box Dempsey on the same terms who don't tote around such a formidable bulk as Willard's.

Kearns says Willard has signed a contract with Tex Rickard in which he merely agrees to risk his life in a ring with the champion. So far, however, Dempsey has not signed for this fight, Kearns maintained.

The battle will go to some free land where 200 rounders are permitted, probably to Cuba, Kearns said. Cuba would be all the better for that Willard is a card with the winter crowd by reason of his defeating Jack Johnson there.

The Dempsey-Carpenter fight is looking for a home again. Kearns now thinks that Tex Rickard, William A. Brady and Charles K. Cochran, the promoters never did intend to put it on here. That's out because Tex Rickard himself was playing hard for New York as the battle ground, but the recent opposition apparently has killed all hope of having the muck in Manhattan or thereabouts.

"We'll fight in England if the United States doesn't want to see her own champion defend an American title on American soil," Kearns concluded with a tone of commingled injury and defiance.

BADGERS MAY SCHEDULE GAME WITH MICHIGAN

By United Press Leased Wire. Chicago.—Lengthening of the football season for the "big ten" was the main topic for discussion among faculty representative coaches and athletic directors of mid-western universities, meeting here today.

The proposed plan would add two additional games to the schedule, opening the season one week earlier and playing one game on the Saturday after Thanksgiving. The tremendous interest shown in collegiate football during the last two years, many attending the meeting believed, warranted extension of the schedule.

Gossip concerning the schedules said Chicago and Northwestern would probably resume their relations. Michigan and Wisconsin may meet next year. Many inter-sectional games were being considered.

Rules were to be discussed. Changes advocated included allowing the ball, on a forward pass, blocked behind the line of scrimmage, to remain in play.

GRAIN MARKET IS SLIGHTLY HIGHER

Prices Open Lower But Market Shows Strength in Later Trading.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—After opening week, the grain market showed considerable strength in trading on the Chicago board of trade today.

Price drops at the opening were slight, due to selling of commission houses and liquidation of long holdings. The stand of the secretary of the treasury against financial assistance to farmers, had a bearish influence.

Good export business caused the increase in later trading. Provisions closed higher.

December wheat was off 1 at the opening, $1.69½, and later regained 1½. March wheat was unchanged at the opening, $1.65, but later gained two.

December corn opened off ¼ at 72, and regained ¼ at the close. May corn was unchanged at the opening, 76½, and closed off ¼. July corn opened at 76½ and later gained 1.

December oats was off ¼ at the opening, and later gained ¼. May oats was up ¼ at 51½ at the opening and advanced ½ in later trading. July oats opened at 51½ and gained another 1.

STRONG TONE TO DAY'S TRADING IN NEW YORK

New York—The Evening Sun financial review today said: "There was a strong tone in today's short session of the stock market, although price fluctuations were neither broad nor uniform."

"The old descriptions continued to show more pronounced strength than other parts of the list, Mexican Petroleum advancing to a gain of more than four points in the first half. Pan-American nearly two points and California Petroleum a point or so. The motors were not buoyant but nevertheless made a fair showing."

"In the railroad department there was less evidence of accumulation and while many of the issues held firm, some of them like New Haven and one or two others, were under no little pressure. Southern Pacific had moments of strength but it seemed to want in staying power, and swayed within a range of two or three points. Trading was only moderately animated for the session as a whole."

"In the second hour with few exceptions, the industrial and railroad lists sprang forward in unison with the oil in the van. Mexican Petroleum pushed through 180 for the first time since November 6. Crucible Steel gained more than four points while net gains among the standard shares averaged one to two points."

"WOMEN CAN PREVENT WAR"

Mrs. PETHICK-LAWRENCE

Washington—Women and the workers must stop future wars. This is the belief of Mrs. Pethick-Lawrence, famous English militant suffragist, who has come to this country to organize an American branch of the Women's Peace Society. Mrs. Lawrence has organized the women in 22 countries. "When the women are united with the workers, no government will be strong enough or diplomacy secret enough to bring the curse of war," says Mrs. Lawrence.

CUSTOMER WOUNDED
BUT ROBBERY FAILS

Detroit—A customer was shot and critically wounded when William Rickett, cashier of a branch of a large bank here, engaged three bandits in a gun battle and frustrated an attempted robbery. The customer, Charles McCabe, was struck twice by bullets fired by one of the bandits. The bandits escaped.

FATE OF UNIONISM
HINGES ON STRIKE

Operator and Miners Feel That Much Depends on Mingo County Strike.

By Harold D. Jacobs
By United Press Leased Wire
Williamson, W. Va.—The issue of unionism or non-unionism in the coal industry of America is being fought out in Mingo county.

"We believe Mingo county is the key to the situation in the fight between the open shop and unionism," said Harry Olmstead, president of the Williamson Coal Operators' association.

"If we should lose, other non-union fields would be endangered. A nationwide victory for the United Mine Workers would mean industrial chaos in the coal fields and ultimate government control. It was the open shop fields which kept the country from freezing when the general strike was called last fall. But we think we have already won. A few weeks at the most will see conditions thoroughly stabilized."

The United Mine Workers apparently have accepted the operators' challenge, for they already have held out six months and with the backing of their international headquarters are prepared to "carry on" indefinitely.

The strike to date, in addition to costing the miners a million dollars in wages and the operators even more millions in lost tonnage, has exacted a toll of a score of lives.

Both operators and strikers believe the presence of federal troops will prevent further bloodshed, which is officially deplored by all factions.

Despite this, it was reported to the sheriff's office today that fifty shots were fired from the mountains on the Kentucky side Thursday night into mines ten miles north of here. No casualties were reported and there was no return fire.

The Japanese attitude is similar to that of France and Great Britain who have refused to surrender the former German-Atlantic cables in the interest of free and untrammelled world communication.

HARDING HAS FEW POLITICAL DEBTS

Lack of "Original" Backers of Ohio Senator Makes His Task Easier.

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Washington—Senator Harding will have fewer "original Harding men" to reward when he becomes president than most incoming executives.

Harding will be less embarrassed through the payment of political debts than most newly inaugurated presidents.

Naturally there will be hundreds of jobs distributed to organization men throughout the country, but they would have been distributed regardless of who had won. These men were for the party first—therefore they will claim their share of the victory.

Before the convention, most of the party leaders were too busy with the candidacy of Governor Lowden, General Wood and Senator Johnson to take much notice of the Ohio senator.

Even nine members of the Ohio delegation thought so little of his candidacy that they were making as much noise as possible for General Wood. The state was split wide open in a bitter fight between Harding and Wood partisans.

At that time the next president of the United States was almost lost in the shuffle.

His cause was regarded as hopeless by others than the loyal band of 39 Buckeye delegates, Harry M. Daugherty, his campaign manager, and his assistants, a few friends and a handful of delegates scattered among other states.

A humorous writer, in making up a racing form, wrote so far as to say odds were one hundred to none against Harding.

Has Not Forgotten

President-elect Harding has not forgotten these pre-convention conditions.

He also has a splendid sense of humor, and since the convention he has often chuckled at the last-minute rush to get on his band wagon.

The belated arrivals—and that means almost all of them—won't have much standing at the pie counter.

HAMON'S WIDOW
RAPS AFFINITY

Mrs. Hamon Declares Fleeing Husband Paraded Her Beauty With Hamon.

By United Press Leased Wire
Ardmore, Okla.—Assailing Clara Smith Hamon alleged slayer of her husband, as one who "came along with her beauty and paraded with Mr. Hamon," the widow of Jake L. Hamon, late republican national committeeman, today made her first public statement since his mysterious death.

Her statement was made while packing her baggage to go to Oklahoma. City to purchase mourning clothing.

"If I have lived with Mr. Hamon between the four walls and no one would be kinder than he," said Mrs. Hamon, defending her husband from attacks.

"I have lived with Mr. Hamon 22 years and much longer than she, and I should know him."

"After I have grown old, she comes along with her beauty and gives me insults by parading with Mr. Hamon. If the world knew her as she is they would not continue to flaunt her name and her picture before the public."

"I can hear the hardships of it all if they will call her by her right name instead of using the name of Hamon."

"She gives her age as 27 when she really is 32."

"As for the diary being published as having been written by Clara Smith, she never had the ability to write a diary in that fashion. It is the work of some unscrupulous newspaper writer to gain reputation and to gain money and furthermore, the picture which has been published does not resemble the Smith person, for she is now much older and much worse looking than when the picture was taken."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gazerowicz are spending the week end with relatives at Manitowoc.
